Report to the Community
2011/5771
The Vision of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh is to have a thriving, vibrant, and engaged Jewish Community. In order to accomplish this we raise and allocate funds and build community locally, in Israel, and around the world.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh will be able to provide the most benefit to our community only if we are true to the following core values:

1. We are guided by the teachings of Torah including; tikkun olam (repairing the world), tzedakah (justice), chesed (kindness) and k’lal Yisrael (peoplehood).

2. We aim to sustain and meaningfully grow Jewish identity, leadership and involvement in our community.

3. Our work will be carried out within the context of cooperation and inclusiveness.

4. We recognize the importance of working in concert with others.

5. We recognize the human dignity of every individual in the community.

6. We care about building a strong community with purpose and involvement.

7. We will establish priorities to accomplish our vision and mission.

8. We value the beliefs and opinions of all members of our community.
Numbers sometimes tell a story. More than $12.8 million raised in the Jewish Federation's 2011 Annual Campaign, to support human services in Pittsburgh, Israel and around the world... More than $14.4 million raised by the Federation’s Jewish Community Foundation, to position us for a vibrant and dynamic future.

All good news. But this is only half the story.

Along with raising the money, the Federation strives to assure our generous donors that financial resources are used as efficiently and effectively as possible. We take pride in the partnerships we’ve established that enable us to do that. Those relationships have resulted in successes that make our Federation a leader among non-profits – and a model for other communities.

One example is AgeWell Pittsburgh, a visionary collaboration of the Jewish Association on Aging, the Jewish Community Center and Jewish Family & Children’s Service that ensures the most comprehensive services for our community’s seniors, to keep them safe, healthy and enriched. Another is the Pittsburgh Jewish Day Schools Council, bringing together Community Day School, Hillel Academy and Yeshiva Schools, to share their passion for – and advance the cause of – Jewish learning and engagement.

And these accomplishments, in turn, are made possible by other partnerships, especially our ongoing work with the Jewish Healthcare Foundation, whose $900,000 grant towards health and human services facilitates so much of the important work our agencies are able to accomplish.

But chief among our key partnerships are the ones we have with our donors and volunteers, without whom we could not begin to dream of these achievements, let alone bring them to fruition.

It is impossible to reflect on the extraordinary year behind us without referencing another number that tells a story: 100. This year marks our 100th year of service to our community, city and region. 100 years of writing our local Jewish history and meeting the challenges of each ensuing decade.

Our Centennial, which we will celebrate throughout the coming year with special programs, will include a unique Mega Mission to Israel, June 19-28, 2012, featuring special tracks for families, seasoned Israel travelers and first-timers, as well as opportunities to choose your own itinerary. Please consider joining us, to share the excitement of experiencing Israel as a community.

Finally, we extol one Centennial project that simply could not wait for our 100th year. The Centennial Fund for a Jewish Future (CFJF), the most ambitious endowment effort ever undertaken by our Jewish Community Foundation, got a head start this year – and has already raised $16 million. CFJF creates a bridge for our community as we prepare to embark on the next 100 years, by ensuring funding for Jewish learning experiences of all kinds, to more fully engage our community in Jewish life, thus ensuring a strong and vital community for the future.

FINANCIAL RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

The Federation had a resoundingly successful year under the Center for Jewish Philanthropy model, a holistic approach to financial resource development that encompasses securing annual, planned, supplemental and corporate gifts, as well as government and foundation grants.

The Annual Campaign reached an all-time high of $12.8 million and included nearly 800 new donors and record numbers attending Campaign events. The Federation’s Jewish Community Foundation raised more than $14.4 million, bringing total assets under Foundation management to $150 million. The Foundation’s Centennial Fund for a Jewish Future (CFJF) exceeded $16 million and made essential contributions to the community by supporting vital programs in Jewish education, Israel travel experiences for teens and young adults and Jewish overnight camping.

Bringing the financial resource development accomplishment to more than $33 million this year were efforts through the Pennsylvania Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program and government and foundation grants to the Jewish Federation and its agencies.

COMMUNITY BUILDING AND FUNDING

During 2010-2011, thanks to a wealth of programs, individuals of all ages with varying backgrounds and interests found ways to engage in and strengthen the Jewish community.

Our youngest community members connected through PJ Library, which provides free Jewish books to young children, programming for families and training for local Jewish preschool teachers. PJ Library is in partnership with the Agency for Jewish Learning, the Jewish Community Center and Community Day School. Meanwhile, the Teen Engagement Initiative involved many teens through J-Serve, a volunteerism program; Culture Clubs at local schools; Teen Mentoring; and much more.

Shalom Pittsburgh, the outreach arm of the Young Adult Division, collaborated with many community organizations on the Fast Track Dating program, which attracted 110 local singles for an evening of meeting and greeting. Touching Jews of all ages was JFilm: The Pittsburgh Jewish Film Forum, which encompassed the 18th annual Film Festival featuring 20 films from nine countries – and drawing some 3,700 people, as well as educational programs for Jewish and non-Jewish teens and young adults.

The Federation connected community members to Israel in a variety of ways, from offering scholarships that enable youth to participate in educational travel programs... to engaging hundreds of people in Partnership 2000 work with our sister communities, Karmiel and the Misgav region... to staging the annual Yom Ha’atzmaut celebration and the Israel Memorial Day commemoration... to sponsoring Israel booths at cultural events around town.

The Community and Public Affairs Council reverted back to its former name, the Community Relations Council (CRC). This year CRC worked to forge interfaith relations, most notably with the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh, resulting in a journey by a group of Catholics and Jews to the Vatican and Israel. CRC also actively advocated for the release of kidnapped Israeli soldier Gilad Shalit.

The Holocaust Center of Pittsburgh continued to heighten public awareness of the Holocaust and preserve the memories of the Six Million, this year launching the Survivor/Liberator Testimony Project in collaboration with WQED Multimedia, to create DVDs containing testimonies of local eyewitnesses to Holocaust history. The Center also sponsored the annual community-wide Yom Hashoah Commemoration, focused on Liberation and Hope, and explored the importance of free speech and resistance efforts during World War II at the annual Kristallnacht commemoration.
The Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh is proud to recognize and thank each contributor to the 2011 Annual Campaign. Each commitment is meaningful. This Honor Roll lists contributors of $1,000 or more who have permitted us to list their names. Some have chosen not to be included. This publication went to print on September 1, 2011. Some Campaign commitments may not have been completed by that date. We have honored all requests to the best of our ability.

The number of Jews who feel a strong sense of Jewish identity is declining, and the challenge to maintain a vibrant Jewish community in Pittsburgh truly is “no laughing matter.” The Centennial Fund for a Jewish Future (CFJF), chaired by David and Cindy Shapira, is an endowment within the Federation’s Jewish Community Foundation that provides immediate and ongoing funding for important activities that keep us connected to our rich heritage and traditions.

After a very successful fundraising year, CFJF stands at $16 million in commitments. Meanwhile, the Fund is making a significant impact by supporting a broad range of programs that inspire participants and foster their enduring connections to Jewish life and the Jewish community.

Among them are:

• Jewish Camp – 125 children received incentive grants through CFJF, in partnership with the Foundation for Jewish Camp, encouraging them to have a first-time extended experience at Jewish overnight camp immersed in a Jewish environment among Jewish friends.

• Counselors in Training – 48 teens spent three weeks in Israel undergoing intensive leadership training, then returned to the Jewish Community Center’s overnight camp, EKC, energized and inspired to bring their love of Israel to campers. The program, now in its sixth year, has been endowed permanently by the Philip Chosky Foundation through CFJF.

• J’Burgh – An initiative of the Edward and Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center, J’Burgh reaches out to approximately 2,500 Jewish graduate students and young professionals in their twenties, enabling them to be part of a Jewish community as they transition from college to starting families of their own.

• Birthright – Forty Jewish young adults enjoyed a first time, peer group, educational trip to Israel, when CFJF underwrote the cost for their participation in Taglit-Birthright.

• Tuition Support for New Day School Students – Families had the opportunity to transfer a child to a local Jewish Day School for a tuition-free first year of quality secular and Judaic studies.
The Jewish Community Foundation of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh enables donors to create permanent endowment funds that ensure a steady stream of funding to address community needs both now and in the years to come. Total Foundation assets currently under management stand at more than $150 million, which encompasses some 914 funds and reflects $14.4 million in new money donated during 2010-2011.

A vast array of programs and services are supported by the Jewish Community Foundation which, this year, disbursed more than $650,000 from its unrestricted funds. A sampling of those programs and services follows:

- Services for Economically Stressed and At-Risk Families – To ensure that Jewish Family & Children’s Service can maintain its open-door policy to the Jewish community in the face of government cuts and increased service demand.

- Special Needs Inclusion – Evaluation and support to help the Jewish Federation and its agencies include individuals with special needs in their work.

- Teen Engagement Initiative – Reaches out to 60% of local Jewish teens to provide networking and leadership development opportunities that help connect them to the Jewish community and each other.

- Howard Levin Clubhouse Transportation Project – To provide bus passes to Clubhouse members to ensure access to Clubhouse activities, work, medical care, and other wellness-related activities.

- Jewish Genetic Disease Screenings – To educate Pittsburgh’s college students about Jewish genetic diseases and provide them with screenings.

- Jewish Community Center Assistance – To address the unprecedented and unremitting need for assistance by those requiring JCC services ranging from day care and after school care, to health and wellness services.

- Generations: Intergenerational Visitation to Jewish Seniors – To deepen involvement in Jewish life among youth and seniors, and help youth fulfill the mitzvah of bikur cholim, visiting the sick, distressed and vulnerable.

- Support for Squirrel Hill Health Center Patients – To provide comprehensive primary and preventive medical and dental care to newly-uninsured patients who were covered by the Adult Basic insurance program for low income adults before it was terminated.

- Reshet Program – To provide high-quality education and facilitation services to synagogue leaders, with the goal of building congregational capacity to engage adults and families in Jewish life and learning.

SUPPORTING FOUNDATIONS

A supporting foundation is a separate non-profit charitable fund which operates as a supporting foundation to the Federation and qualifies as a public charity. This type of fund offers the donor a continuing role in the operation of the charitable fund.

Meyer and Merle Berger Family Foundation Inc.
The Edward and Rose Berman Legacy Foundation
Jack G. Buncher Charitable Fund

PHILANTHROPIC FUNDS

To establish a fund, the donor makes an irrevocable lifetime gift of cash or appreciated property, for which the donor receives the maximum tax deduction for charitable contributions. In turn, the donor may make non-binding recommendations for distributions of the fund’s income and/or principal to sectarian or non-sectarian organizations approved by the Foundation and designated as appropriate recipients of charitable funds by the IRS. A contribution of $5,000 is suggested to establish a fund.

The Center for Jewish Philanthropy (CJP) is a holistic approach to financial resource development that allows the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh to focus on matching donors’ passions with their philanthropic desires, while maximizing support of current and future funding needs both locally and around the world. It is a donor-centric, customer-service based model, which enables the Federation to raise and distribute more resources through all streams of financial resource development. It is designed to position the Federation as the pre-eminent provider of donor and funder services for the Jewish Philanthropist.

The CJP serves as a venue through which donors can make a meaningful difference in the lives of others while realizing their own individual philanthropic aspirations. The various giving opportunities include, but are not limited to, the Annual Campaign, planned giving and endowments, government and outside foundation grants, supplemental (project-based) giving, capital gifts and corporate sponsorship.
SUPPLEMENTAL GIVING
While maintaining the primacy of the Annual Campaign and focus on increasing the Jewish Community Foundation, the Federation also continues to develop its supplemental giving program. Supplemental giving is defined as donors giving a significant financial commitment above and beyond their commitment to the Federation Annual Campaign.

Below we recognize donors who have made a minimum supplemental gift of $10,000 and are currently donors to the 2011 Federation Annual Campaign. The donors are listed based on the community priority area to which their commitment has had an impact.

AGING AND HUMAN NEEDS
Providing an easily accessible, high-quality, complete continuum of care for the aging, the financially and socially vulnerable and those with special needs.

JEWISH COMMUNITY LIFE/ JEWISH LEARNING
Providing a vibrant, thriving Pittsburgh Jewish community that can sustain itself and grow into the next century with an abundance of programming and opportunities that engage people of all different ages and backgrounds effortlessly and meaningfully in Jewish life. Creating a community that offers the means to grow, live and learn Jewishly – at every stage of life and every level of affiliation.

CORPORATE DONORS & SUPPORTERS

CORPORATE DONORS

Without corporate sponsorship many important educational and outreach programs of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh could not take place. Corporate sponsorship dollars help offset costs of programs so that funds raised by the Federation can support much-needed social services in and around the community including efforts that feed the hungry, shelter and care for the elderly, counsel at-risk teens and families in crisis and assist the unemployed.

Contributing to the Federation enables corporate donors to reach one of the most educated, influential and sophisticated consumer markets. It allows companies to enjoy visibility and exposure to donors via multimedia marketing and event-related benefits.

We are proud to recognize and thank the following corporate contributors. The list below includes corporate donors who contributed $1,000 or more and have permitted us to use their names.

THE EDUCATIONAL IMPROVEMENT TAX CREDIT PROGRAM

The following corporate donors have very generously contributed to the Pittsburgh Jewish Educational Improvement and/or Pre-Kindergarten Foundations through the Pennsylvania Educational Improvement Tax Credit Program (EITC) in 2010-2011. Through this initiative, the Foundations provided 529 scholarships totaling $2.5 million for children to attend Jewish day schools and pre-kindergarten programs in the Pittsburgh area.
